

Black history is rich with heros whose perseverance, courage and persistence transformed society and paved the way as well as opened doors for generations of children to come.

Without knowledge of history the world, for a young child, is a very small place. Black History provides our students with wonderful models of people who persevered in some of the most difficult situations. And we believe that teaching Black History to Parkway's students will open their worlds and their hearts.

Our heroes in Black History may have been born at a time when our world was unjust and unfair to African Americans, but they did not let that define them. Instead they moved forward, broke barriers and achieved their goals against the odds.

Black History Month was established to give us an opportunity to learn about, recognize and celebrate the achievements of African American pioneers who experienced unfathomable injustices and/or obstacles in life and persevered.

The students are proud of their work and wanted to share what they have learned with all of our Parkway families. Please click on the link provided below to view the Black History slideshow.

Students are excited about the Wisconsin Golden Archer nominees and Caldecott Medal books. After reading these fun books, students are able to show what they know and engage in activities related to the books by visiting the PW Library K5 page.

Wisconsin's Golden Archer Award

Every year, Parkway students listen to each of the five Wisconsin Golden Archer nominees. Then, the students get to cast their vote for their favorite. Parkway's votes are then sent to Madison to help determine the winner of the Wisconsin Golden Archer award.

Parkway's favorite was: Llama Destroys the World

- The Paper Kingdom by Helena Ku Rhee
- The Pigeon HAS to Go to School! by Mo Willems
- The Panda Problem by Deborah Underwood
- The Bad Seed by Jory John
- Llama Destroys the World by Jonathan Stutzman

Student and Family Assistance Program (SFAP)

A free and confidential resource

We can make a difference for students and families.

A healthy home and family life can nurture academic excellence.

To promote healthy homes, minds and families, your school is proud to offer the Student and Family Assistance Program (SFAP). Sponsored by the Employee Assistance Program (EAP) of Advocate Aurora Health (AAH), our counselors have been serving families for more than 25 years.

How it works

The SFAP is available at no charge to all students and family members residing within the household. Help begins when a family member or legally responsible adult calls the program.

Based on your needs, our specialists will:

- Connect you by phone with a professional counselor who will consult with you.
- Schedule a confidential appointment with a program counselor for you or your family. Many times, a family's concerns can be resolved within program sessions, saving time and money.
- Assist with an insurance- or community-based referral if your situation requires diagnostic or ongoing treatment.

All services are confidential. No information about you or your family situation will be shared with school personnel without your permission in accordance with state and federal law.

When to use the program

This varies from person to person. Generally, it's wise to seek help when a problem:

- Interferes with normal activities
- Occupies too much of your time
- Persists for more than several weeks

Typical concerns may include:

- Parenting support and coaching
- Academic pressures
- Alcohol/drug issues
- Anxiety and depression
- Child/family issues
- Divorce/blended families
- Marital/relationship issues
- Stress management

Additional services

Seeking a healthy balance

The following services are available to help families quickly and conveniently address other issues that may impact their lives:

- Legal consultation and mediation
- Financial consultation
- Child care resources
- Elder care resources
- Adoption information

Our promise to you and your family

Your privacy is protected in accordance with both federal and state laws regarding mental health and medical treatment records. The professionals within the SFAP make every effort to protect your privacy and ensure that your participation in the program is completely confidential.

How to reach us

Call 800-236-3231 and identify yourself as eligible for SFAP services through your school.
